

Mathematics Domain

California Preschool Learning Foundations Volume 1

Mathematics

Published by the
California Department of Education (2008)

Perceptions of Success

- Write a research review describing the relationship between children's success in mathematics and their attributions of that success.
- Consider cultural and/or gender differences that may be influential.
- Discuss the implications for working with young children as they develop math skills and knowledge related to the foundations.