

Sample of NBSN
Support Programs

| Institution | Program | Candidate Numbers | Recruitment/information meetings/Summer Institutes |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Delta Sierra National Board Support Program Ellen Hancock 209-468-4967 ehancock@sjcoe.net | Monthly meetings on Saturday; coaching; certificate alike and cross- certificate group meetings | 13 candidates submitted; 4 advanced candidates submitted | Ten one-hour information sessions with abundance of printed information; exploring concept of 3-day institute |
| Folsom Cordova School District: Virginia Bateman 916-985-7700 x226 gbateman@fcusd.k12.ca.us | Monthly meetings; individualized coaching; small groups of similar certificates | 4 candidates; 10 candidates-in- waiting (2001-02 cycle); 3 retake candidates-in-waiting | Spring 3-hour information meeting |
| Grossmont Union High School District: Sandra Schuster 619-253-4669 schuster@san.rr.com | | 22 candidates | |
| LA County Office of Education PDC Region 11: Adrienne Mack-Kirschner 562-922-8871 562-522-6743 Mack_Adrienne@lacoed.edu | Program focuses on classroom strategies to promote student achievement while preparing candidate portfolios; monthly after-school meetings held at 6 different sites to accommodate all candidates; program is completing its second year | Began with 160 candidates | Required 4 day summer institute held at various locations throughout the county (choose from 4 meeting times); requires teachers to bring in student work samples which they use during the institute; incorporates self assessment to determine readiness |
| Marin County Office of Education: Margaret Beyer 415-499-5877 mbeyer@marin.k12.ca.us | Monthly after-school support group meetings facilitated by Lisa Stone, 415- 786-7471, lstone@marin.k12.ca.us and Joanne Goldman, 415-897-2111, jtopp@marin.k12.ca.us | 12 candidates | Information meetings are held in the late winter/early spring |
| Moreland School District: Ruth Bareket 408-874-2942 rbareket@moreland.k12.ca.us | No formal program--facilitator reads and critiques portfolios; candidates participate in Stanford support group | None | Annual recruitment meeting for prospective candidates |
| National Board Resource Center at Stanford University: Misty Sato 650-724-7349 msato@stanford.edu | Beginning in Summer 2003 they will have 2 strands of support for candidates submitting in different cohorts; no drop in allowed--must attend at least 7 meetings | Approximately 100 teachers submitted | |
| North Coast PDC, Region 1/Sonoma County Office of Education, Santa Rosa: Barbara Powell 707-524-2827 bpowell@scoe.org | PDC funding is gone; unless they have sufficient numbers, the county won't commit to the program for 2003-04 | 24 certified last year; 14 candidates this year, plus 12 in Sonoma State program | Seminar in June that will hopefully bring in candidates |

Sample of NBSN
Support Programs

| Pre-Candidate Seminars | Recruitment | Program Fees | Facilitator Support | Additional Information |
|------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Weekend retreat in August where they wrap up entry 4 | E-mail flyer to administrators and teachers in the five-county region; printed flyers distributed throughout the region; presentations to superintendents, school boards; online postings | Current program is free, future programs will cost about $450 per candidate; looking for grant funding | Stipend for each facilitator for each meeting | Had 4 recruiting meetings as of Feb. 2003; probable new support site in Stanislaus; exploring concept of 3-day institute |
| August pre-candidate writing workshop | Flyer advertising information meeting | Program is free; district pays fees not covered by state subsidy | District allocates 15% of Virginia Bateman's salary to NB Outreach/Support | |
| | | | | |
| | Program recruits heavily from 87 districts in LA County | $450 | | |
| | Flyers/brochures are distributed to superintendents, principals and other interested district personnel | $350/candidate | Stipend paid to each facilitator | |
| | | | | Three financial levels of support: 1)$1-2,000 application fee for first ten people who successfully complete; 2)annual stipend equivalent to and, if applicable, in addition to a Master's (currently $1,983); 3)$250 for one re-take if necessary |
| Seminars to introduce candidates to the NBC process | | | | Research grant to look at classroom teachers classroom assessment practices before, during, and after assessment |
| | Orientation sessions and information packets sent to all schools | None | $250 per day | 3rd year, numbers grew from 2 to 33 candidates |

Sample of NBSN
Support Programs

| Institution | Program | Candidate Numbers | Recruitment/information meetings/Summer Institutes |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Oakland Unified School District: Suzanne Linford 510-879-8906 slinford@ousd.k12.ca.us | Monthly meetings on Saturday mornings; various small group meetings | 25 submitted their portfolio | |
| RIMS PDC, Region 10: Brooke Harms 909-386-2683 brooke_harms@sbcss.k12.ca.us | Last year had 60 go through, approximately 30-40 got certified | 35 candidates submitting | |
| San Francisco Unified School District: Susie E. Turner 415-759-2927 Fax 415-759-2981 sturner@muse.sfusd.edu | Half the candidates go to SFUSD support group/ half go to Stanford | 116 candidates | |
| San Jose Unified School District: MaryAnn Rokovich 408-535-6233 MaryAnn_Rokovich@sjusd.k12.ca.us | Will begin new pre-candidate program soon | 21 candidates-in-waiting; 12 candidates getting ready to apply | |
| Santa Clara County Office of Education: Rebecca J Garcia 408-453-4334 Rebecca_Garcia@sccoe.org | Began with 6 candidates and 2 dropped out; monthly meetings, as of January, meet at Santa Cruz COE | 6 candidates | Setting up 2 info meetings this spring |
| Santa Rosa City Schools: Sally Bimrose 707-528-5463 sbimrose@srcs.k12.ca.us | Board is committed to supporting candidates; candidates who certify receive a $2,500 yearly salary increase | 3 candidates; 4 advanced candidates | Information meetings are scheduled for individual school sites for February and March for potential candidates |
| Southern region of San Diego County (AT-SPN)(Chula Vista) : Laurie Humphrey 619-425-9600 lhumphre@cvesd.k12.ca.us | Monthly meetings: formal part of meeting during first 45 minutes, then candidates work together and read each other's work; new NBCT network will meet every other month; Chula Vista is largest elementary district in state | Last year had 30 candidates and 10 certified; 20 retaking; this year have 9 candidates | 3 recruitment meetings--1 before each window; every teacher in Chula Vista Elementary School District and surrounding districts receives an invitation |
| Tamalpais Union High School District: Kathy Bennett 415-945-3723 | Monthly meetings & bi-weekly drop-in support | | Orientation meetings for interested candidates |
| The Support Network: Celeste Fobia Susie Chow 213-251-1444 | 2 programs in LA: one year round group that started in July; one traditional group that starts in October | 190 candidates in year round group that began in July 2002; 210 candidates in traditional group beginning in October 2002 | 8 orientation meetings planned |
| UCLA Center X: Ann Ifekwunigwe 310-825-1383 Rae Jeane Williams 310-825-5715 | Received an NB research grant to support African American candidates: chose 15 candidates who get laptops, email coaching, and meet 3 hours per month | Began with 90 candidates and 20 dropped out; began with 18 African American candidates, now have 13 | 4-day institutes in June, July & August for following year's candidates |

Sample of NBSN
Support Programs

| Pre-Candidate Seminars | Recruitment | Program Fees | Facilitator Support | Additional Information |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| | | | | Program support includes videotaping, writing, tutoring, xeroxing; 15 NBCTs; working with St. Mary's to develop MA in teacher leadership |
| | | $300 | | |
| | | | | Kay Hones and Lorraine Magid will be facilitators |
| | | | | |
| | | | | Looking at how to start a network to support the 80 nbcts in Santa Clara County |
| Pre-candidate meeting held in April: one for secondary level and one for elementary level | Flyers sent to each certificated staff member in the district; informal recruitment through conversations with principals | No program fee | One facilitator in district and role is part of job duties | Last year was the first year the district supported NB |
| None | | District pays all fees | Laurie Humphrey runs program as part of duties with Chula Vista district; also receives $2,000 stipend from San Diego COE to work w/ teachers outside Chula Vista | Support Program is based in Chula Vista Elementary School District but is part of larger support network called Accomplished Teacher Support Provider Network |
| | Bi-monthly personnel bulletin; flyers to schools for orientation meetings | No program fee; district pays $1,000 toward application fee, union reimburses the initial $300 | Stipend; funds for guest speakers; materials and equipment (as needed) | 2000-01: 7 candidates - 5 certified 2001-02: 3 candidates, 1 banking candidate - all certified 02-03: 3 candidates |
| | | $300 (increase from last year due to cut in budget) | | LAUSD has 850 NBCTs--65% of these went through the Support Network |
| | | $425 | | |

Sample of NBSN
Support Programs

| Institution | Program | Candidate Numbers | Recruitment/information meetings/Summer Institutes |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------|
| University of Nevada, Reno/COE: Diane Barone 775-784-4961x2080 barone@unr.nevada.edu | Program meets one Saturday each month; candidates register for 3 credits of graduate work | Just finished 4th cohort (2003); started out with 40 candidates and ended up with 26 | One-day summer institute to provide background on NB for candidates |
| Ventura County: Aleta Lepper 805-641-5438 | No money for a 2003-04 support program | 10 candidates last year; this year 30 expressed interest, and now down to 3 candidates and 2 advanced candidates | |

Sample of NBSN
Support Programs

| Pre-Candidate Seminars | Recruitment | Program Fees | Facilitator Support | Additional Information |
|-------------------------------|--------------------|----------------------------------------------|----------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| None | Flyers to schools | None; Diane raises money for tuition | Part of Diane's job at UNR | Supported by a reading grant, the state, private foundations, and money from Diane Barone's book; local school district pays for tuition for her course |
| | | Difficulty helping to find money to pay fees | | |